TRIGGER WARNING! This article contains content that may bring users with past trauma, to something that might cause a physical and/or mental reaction. Viewer discretion is advised!Reason: The pre-Transgression transformation as well as Transgression in general is really flashy. Fan Favorite That was funky indeed! - Boyfriend This mod is a fan favorite! It's well known within the community! Note: This is one of the more OG mods out there. Upcoming Content I'll be back... With a vengeance... - Eula This mod has upcoming content that is confirmed to be in development, either confirmed on a livestream, a tweet, or any other verified source of information! This article likely has placeholder content. Please refrain from adding any false or unconfirmed information. Remember to stay patient with the mod creator(s) and don't repeatedly ask them when the next update will come, since mods take time to make.Upcoming: While not made by the original devs, it's getting an official update.[1] HIGHRISE-F and ORDINANCE-F TRANSGRESSION-F Orange with white sclera and white pupils (Normal)Neon green (Max mode) AdventNEONFriday Night Funkin' (As a mod) "Humans?" In Central District?" — Neon, HIGHRISE-FAre you looking for the Neo mod or the Unofficial Neo Mod? Neon is the protagonist of the upcoming 2D platformer AdventNEON. They appear as a mod in Friday Night Funkin' and were created by CryoGX. His mod takes place as Boyfriend and Girlfriend cross dimensions and arrive in the world of AdventNEON, where they find the titular protagonist themselves. Neon attempts to bring them to safety, only for Boyfriend to reject Neon's help and make it clear that he and Girlfriend are from another world. Boyfriend challenges Neon to a rap battle, confusing Neon, but they accept anyways, under the condition that they play Neon's music. Appearance Neon has green metal-like skin with an upside down cyan and a sky blue triangle-like marking on their forehead, as well as similar, smaller markings on the sides of their eyes, green spikes that resemble hair and orange eyes with white sclera and white pupils. And a purple line in a line. They mainly wear a purple tank top with a lime green "10" symbol on the center of the tank top and a similar power button-like symbol on the back of the tank top, dark purple shorts, purple fingerless gloves with green patches on the back, purple headphones with lime green hollow circle rings on the sides of them and dark purple shoes with lime green soles and brighter purple parts. During their idle animation, they stomp their left foot and are shown to have a confident grin on their face. They hold their microphone in their left hand. When Neon enters Max mode in their third song, Transgression-F, their metal and eyes become neon green, and their clothes become shaded in various hues of dark and light green. They also seem to emit a supercharged lightning effect from their body. They no longer stomp their foot in their idle animation, and instead they stand still with a determined, stoic expression on their face. Notably, unlike most mod characters in their third phase/song (they get angry and no longer use a mic), Neon not only does not get angry in the third song, but they also still use their mic. Trivia The -F added to the end of some of the titles denotes that they are rearrangements of similarly named tracks in AdventNEON. The -F at the end of the song names could also stand for Funkin', being that this is a mod for Friday Night Funkin'. Boyfriend and Girlfriend in their minus forms are a purposeful reference to the Friday Night Funkin' Minus mod. Neon's fourth-wall break to advertise AdventNEON marks the first time that a modded character has plugged their own series into their own mod. The art style of the mod and AdventNEON are similar to many 2D platforming games big and small, like Mega Man and Celeste. These games are cited as inspiration for the game itself, alongside other inspirations like Sonic the Hedgehog. As this mod replaces Week 6, Highrise-F replaces Sempai, Ordinance-F replaces Roses and Transgression-F replaces Thorns. Neon replaces Sempai and Max Neon replaces Spirit. The song that plays during the Neon remix of Getting Freaky is the Start screen of AdventNEON In 7 seconds into the song, the sound effect for the Phantom Ruby from Sonic Mania, and Sonic Forces can be heard. That said sound effect can also be heard on Transgression-F. Also, the first cutscene song is the Training Room track. When Neon point's out the fact that they can freeze time to punch faster, they are referencing their dodge ability. Neon icons are their in-game head with a lower number of bits and of shading. If Boyfriend got maxed out in TRANSGRESSION-F, then it means that he has either more power or anit's the result of an error, since in the original game, getting damage cut's half of your energy, getting you out of the max mode, but probably the distortions could be forcing the max mode to be on, since it forced it to activate in the first place. The arrows in the mod are stylized to resemble Bits from the original game which restore Neon's Health. There will be a Kickstarter for Advent Neon coming out soon (it is out now so back it up so that it can reach the goal), kind of like FNF itself. Cameos in other mods Note: All of these cameos are not canon to AdventNEON or Neon's story. Music Dialogue HIGHRISE-F Dialogue Neon: Humans?! In Central District? Neon: I'll get y'all somewhere safe. They'll destroy you here. Boyfriend: Beep. Neon: Dawg. I know I'm mechanical, but you don't gotta talk like- Boyfriend: Bee boop. Neon: OH. I see. my bad. You're not from this world? Neon: And y'all hopped dimensions for a rap battle? Against me, specifically? Boyfriend: Bop. Neon: You know you in a robo-police state, right? Boyfriend: Bop de bee-boop. Neon: ... Neon: I like your attitude. Aight, let's see what you got. Neon: ...but we're using MY music. Boyfriend: Bep bep.ORDINANCE-F Dialogue Neon: Nice. You're pretty good at this. Neon: So let's turn up the pace a bit. Neon: 195BPM good with you? Boyfriend: Bop. Neon: Lit. But first, a conveniently placed, 4th-wall-breakin' advertisement. Boyfriend: Bep?? Neon: CryoGX made this mod. Most all of its art and music was done by him. Neon: I'm from AdventNEON, an action platformer that he's also making by himself. Neon: I don't fight humans like you, but over there I trash haywire bots at lightspeed. Neon: And can literally FREEZE TIME to punch them harder. Neon: If you like what you see and hear, here, there's literally more of me in free demos. Neon: On Steam, Newgrounds, Itch.io, and CrazyGames. Neon: That stuff ain't easy, so if you're liking this mod, definitely check out AdventNEON too! Boyfriend: Beep. Neon: A'ight, let's gettit.TRANSGRESSION-F Dialogue Neon: This ain't normal. Boyfriend: Beep? Boyfriend: Boop?! Neon: All this sudden distortion maxed out my Resonance. Neon: ...And that distortion seems to be coming from y'all. Boyfriend: Bop... Neon: You feel like you're being ripped back to your world... Neon: Then, while I'm maxed out, let me throw this last track at you. Neon: No telling how much time we got, so Neon: HOLD Neon: NOTHING Neon: BACK. Boyfriend: Ah! FNF arrowNoteBryan (Real name)The Director of the ArrowsUp ArrowRight ArrowLeft ArrowDown ArrowArrow PhantomArcadeFruitsy, and BalloonBoyXd (as a mod) Friday Night Funkin'Real life Not to be confused with Arrow Funk "I'm busy." — Bryan, ChartingArrow is simply an arrow, more of a up arrow. And it is known to be the "Director of Arrows." BF was brought to him by GF because BF wanted to get his arrows checked since they were glitchy. Story GF sends BF to go to the "Director of Arrows" to get his arrows checked since they were glitchy. The director says to leave him alone since he was busy, but BF of course didn't... which upset the director, and then they rap battled until... Let's see what happens next. After the first song, the director becomes annoyed instead of helping to check BF's arrow notes, since it was busy doing something instead of checking. Next song, it becomes ANGRY because BF was forcing it to rap instead of making it check his notes, the director also said something about interview about the "Big Notes". This may mean the held notes. Appearance It's a simple arrow pointing upwards, with a grey-ish color with a very slightly tinted blue color with black outlines, with also a inner-outline inside the black outline, just like a typical FNF arrow note, each note the arrow sings follows the same color of the generic notes it's singing. In Ghost Tapping, it's color becomes black, while the outline being maroon, with a glowing red circle on it's center, implying that it's stressed or angry, it also smudges it's shape on it's singing and idle poses. Gameplay Mechanics - Note Manipulation When a song is starting, the opponent's notes disappear, while the healthbar, the song name, score, and accuracy disappears, the player's notes are also rolling into the screen, going to the middle of it. In Charting, the notes are circling around moving sideways left to right in a wavy pattern, making it slightly hard. In Hit Rate, the notes get faster each song it progresses, making it slightly more harder. In Ghost Tapping, the notes goes way too fast to the point the player can barely see the notes, the whole foreground in the screen will start to rotate, making it even more harder, including the spam parts of the song. Cameos in other mods Note: The arrows are always everywhere on each mod you play. In every mod and in Friday night Funkin, the arrows always appear on top of your screen. However, if Downscroll is enabled, the arrows will appear on the bottom. it only saves on FNF or a mod. The arrows can have multiple mechanics, they can move, separate, rotate, be invisible, shake, move to random positions and ETC, as seen on Overcharted, Kade Engine and normal mods, including this mod. Dialogue Charting Boyfriend:Yo! Arrow:What do you want? Boyfriend:The arrows have a bug, can you fix it or you not funni Arrow:I'm busy. Boyfriend:Okay? Arrow:So leave. Boyfriend:No. Arrow:...Lets settle this then.Hit Rate Boyfriend:Yo, your so bad lol Arrow:Aren't you supposed to be a beeping blue haired midget? Boyfriend:Jhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh Arrow:Mhm, now feel bad. Boyfriend:Shut up and rap Arrow:I have things to do, I can't miss my- Boyfriend:SHUT UP AND RAP Arrow:...Ghost Tapping Arrow:THAT'S IT Arrow:I'M TIRED OF THIS Arrow:I JUST WANT TO GO MY INTERVIEW WITH THE BIG NOTES Arrow:STOP RUINING IT Boyfriend:Beep? Arrow:Oh hell naw Arrow:"angy arrow go brrrrrrrrrrrr"High BPM Boyfriend: ... Macy: Oh hi there! Macy: Have you seen my boyfriend Bryan around here? Macy: He went to an interview but he was suppose to be back by now, he's maybe working overtime. Boyfriend: No? Macy: Ah, okay..I guess ill go then- Boyfriend: WAIT Boyfriend: Rap battle me right now Macy: Okay? Macy: Why- Boyfriend: Just do it lol Macy: Okay- Tricky: Cookie. Sakuroma: Hi. (Me And Tricky entering this realm mod is non-canon Sarvente and Ruvyzvat: So are we. Music Charting Charting.mp3 BPM: 140 Scroll Speed: 1.7 (Easy)2 (Normal)2.3 (Hard) Hit Rate Hit_Rate.mp3 BPM: 180 Scroll Speed: 2.2 (Easy)2.6 (Normal)3 (Hard) Ghost Tapping Ghost_Tapping.mp3 BPM: 280 Scroll Speed: 3 (Easy)3.5 (Normal)4 (Hard) Gallery Trivia The Arrow's real name is Bryan, the creator Fruitsy replied to a person on Gamebanana named beep boop, who said "arrow's name is jordan", while Fruitsy replied "Nah, his official name is Bryan". The reason why the notes where circling in a wavy pattern because it's probably why BF was sent there for his arrow notes to be checked. The "Inst" files has vocals inside it's instrumentals instead of a separate "Voices" file for it, which is why you hear the vocals when playing the Freeplay menu. The song names are references from all rhythm games, song name Charting means how you chart the arrow notes to sync with the beats, and music or vocals, song name Hit Rate means how much time you will have to hit the notes like if you hit the notes early, perfectly, or late, song name Ghost Tapping is a reference of how some rhythm games have the ghost tapping feature, the meaning of ghost tapping is when you activate it you cannot minimize or miss a score when you press a key, when it isn't activated your able to miss, and lose a score despite an arrow note not coming in the strumline's way. Fruitsy created another mod called "Bikini Bottom Funkin". Download Links GameBanana Source Code Google Drive
